FDR Visits Hawaii, Confers With Strategists

Crowd Applauds as He Greets MacArthur With 'It's Good To See You Doug'

By Howard Flieger

HONOLULU, July 29 — (P)—(Delayed)—President Roosevelt today concluded three days of military conferences and inspections on this fortress island where two and a half years ago Japanese bombs obliterated the United States into the war.

The president arrived at Pearl Harbor July 26 from the marine base at San Diego, Calif., where he boarded a cruiser shortly after his July 20 speech accepting renomination for a fourth term.

Here he held his first wartime across-the-table conference with the top strategists of the Pacific—Admiral Chester W. Nimitz and Gen. Douglas MacArthur—and talked with other commanders representing the full scope of the Pacific war from pole to pole.

Later Mr. Roosevelt told reporters the meetings planned new offensives against the Japanese, and he reiterated America's Pacific war goals: To retake and free the Philippines and to drive Japan to unconditional surrender.

Amazing Change
The chief executive coupled with his conferences detailed visits to Pearl Harbor and other military installations, converted from the Japanese-wrought havoc of Dec. 7, 1941, into an island bristling with land, sea and air fighting power. He termed the conversion the "most amazing change" he had ever seen.

Admiral Nimitz and General MacArthur—the later wearing a

HONOLULU, July 29—(P)—(Delayed)—President Roosevelt got a close look at the realities of war today—and three wounded jungle fighters probably got the surprise of their young lives.

The president's automobile rolled along an airstrip at Hickman Field and came to a stop at the far end almost under the wing of a huge air transport command ambulance plane which was bringing in wounded from Saipan.

Mr. Roosevelt and his party looked on as litter-bearers carefully transferred the 32 bandaged men from the airplane to waiting ambulances. Three of the litterers came in close to the president's car, and he reached out to shake hands with the veterans.

leather field jacket—went aboard the president's ship to greet the chief executive as soon as he arrived at Pearl Harbor.

"It's good to see you, Doug," the president said to MacArthur as the two men came down the gangplank into a navy yard teeming with sailors and workers. The crowd applauded.

With them and Nimitz in later conferences were Admiral William F. Halsey, commander of the Third Fleet, Lt. Gen. Robert C. Richardson, Jr., Central Pacific army commander, and war chiefs representing the north, south and southwest Pacific theatres.

Successful Visit

Mr. Roosevelt termed his visit to the birthplace of the war a highly successful three days. Seated and smiling, he swapped almost an hour of questions and answers with Pacific war correspondents and White House reporters for the Associated Press, the United Press, the International News Service and a representative of the four major radio networks who travelled with his party from Washington.

"We are going back to the Philippines," Mr. Roosevelt said, "and MacArthur is going to be a part of the operation. You can't say," he smiled, "whether the general is going back directly or by way of North Africa—but he is going back and we are going to give the islands their independence."

Going Right Through
Our goal still is unconditional surrender for all our enemies, he said. Whatever is required, he continued, we are going right through to clean up the Japanese.

A reporter asked if new Japanese offensives would develop soon and the president said yes, but reminded his listeners that soon is a relative term and that strategy is a constantly shifting thing.

During his stay here the president visited virtually every military operation on the island—from a deadly advanced training

Distinguished Flying Cross is Awarded to Sgt James W. Hall

An Eighth Air Force Composite Station, England—Award of the Distinguished Flying Cross to Staff Sergeant James W. Hall of Sedalia has been announced by Brigadier General Edmund W. Hill, commanding general of the Eighth Air Force Composite Command. The award was presented at a recent ceremony.

Sergeant Hall is assigned as a gunner on one of the AAF's big B-24 Liberators and is a veteran of numerous missions over enemy-occupied territory. He holds a responsible position in the mounting all-out offensive against Europe.

The Citation

The citation accompanying the Distinguished Flying Cross states: "For extraordinary achievement, while serving with distinction as gunner of a B-24 airplane on numerous special operational missions over enemy occupied Europe. Sergeant Hall performed his duties with the utmost skill and his actions well engaged in combat with the enemy have been an example to his fellow crewmen. The courage, determination, and exceptional skill displayed by Sergeant Hall contributed materially to the successful completion of each of these missions and reflect highest credit upon himself and the Armed Forces of the United States."

Sgt. James W. Hall

himself and the Armed Forces of the United States."

Sgt. Hall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Hall, rural route 3, Sedalia, and his wife, the former Esther Jolly, lives at 1420 South Sneed, Sedalia. A 1939 graduate of Smith-Cotton high school, he worked for the North American Aviation Corporation before entering the army.

FDR Reviews 7th Division

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Oahu, July 26—(Delayed)—(P)—President Roosevelt, flanked by Gen. Douglas MacArthur and Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, today reviewed the battle-tested 7th division of Attu and Kwajalein fame.

The review was strictly of foot soldiers—no tanks, no airplanes, no flame throwers, no artillery.

From the reviewing platform on the parade grounds where ten years ago to a day he had reviewed U. S. troops, the commander in chief said:

"Officers and men of the Seventh division, I want you to feel—at least in theory—I am bringing to each and every man greetings from his family and his own home at this spot which, thank God, is still a part of the United States."

Within view of the president were some of the buildings hit by the Japanese December 7, 1941.

He added: "I have heard much of what the Seventh division has done. We are proud of the Seventh in what it has done and what it is doing—and that is another reason why I give you all the good luck in the world."

Sgt. Hull Has Purple Heart

Staff Sgt. G. C. Hull, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hull, 4607 South Benton, Kansas City, Mo., formerly of Sedalia, has been wounded in action over Germany and is now in a hospital in Italy. Sgt. Hull, a nose gunner on a B-24 Liberator bomber based in Italy, was on his forty-fourth combat mission when wounded.

In June Sgt. Hull was awarded the Air Medal and on July 28 received the Purple Heart.

Recently word has been received by his parents that he will return to the United States after several months recuperation. He will spend three months on the Isle of Capri, a rest resort for combat flyers.

Sgt. Hull was graduated from the Smith-Cotton high school in 1942 and was attending the Central Missouri State Teachers college at Warrensburg when he enlisted in the Air Corps in October 1942.

Mr. and Mrs. Hull have another son in service, Joe Hull of the United States Marine Corps Reserve, who is now stationed at Camp Pendleton, Oceanside, Calif., and was recently home on furlough.

Both boys are former carrier boys for the Sedalia Democrat. Before going to Kansas City the family resided at 240 South Prospect avenue.

Fala, President's Dog, Makes Trip on Cruiser to Hawaii

HONOLULU, July 29—(P)—(Delayed)—Fala came 2,000 miles aboard the presidential cruiser to Hawaii but he got only a glimpse of fabled Waikiki from the deck. Recently tightened quarantine laws confining canines were not relaxed even for Fala, and President Roosevelt asked no special favors for his five-year-old Scottish.

So Fala lolled aboard, well behaved and well loved by officers and crew. A presidential aide kept a close watch over the Scottish's welfare with daily telephone calls to the ship.

Only incident: A sailor plucked one of Fala's hairs for a souvenir.

Point Values Back to Pork, Canned Fish

Utility Beef and Lamb Removed from Rationing Sunday

By Marvin L. Arrowsmith

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10—(P)—Utility grade lamb will become ration-free Sunday along with beef steaks and roast of the same grade, while point values will be restored not only to pork loins and hams but to canned fish.

The Office of Price Administration, announced this today, also boosted ration values on all cheeses two to four points a pound and increased point values on farm and processed butter in line with the hike to 16 points a pound ordered for creamery butter, effective July 23.

The new red-point charts will be in effect from Sunday through Sept. 2, only half the regular period because of a delay in distributing the August tables.

New values assigned for pork loins range from four points a pound for end cuts to eight points for center cuts. Whole loins will cost five points a pound.

Hams, smoke as well as fresh, also get a value of five points a pound, with shank ends two points and slices nine points. The value on ready-to-eat ham is two points higher a pound than on the uncooked variety.

Fish Back on Ration

Canned fish goes back under rationing because of "a definite scarcity in nearly all sections of the country," OPA said. The more popular kinds, including salmon, tuna and shrimp, will require six points a pound.

To compensate for more red-point food being restored to the ration list than is being taken off, a new red stamp—D5 in ration book—will become valid Sunday and be good indefinitely. OPA announced, however, that hereafter red stamps will be validated at the start of each monthly ration period rather than every fourth Sunday. The number of points provided will be 30 or 40, depending on the length of the ration period.

Under this policy, a new set of stamps, probably three, good for a total of 30 points, will be validated Sept. 2, rather than Aug. 27.

Price Administrator Bowles said the removal of utility beef and lamb from rationing should not be taken as an indication of large supplies of meat.

Japanese Run When They See a Marine

For First Time on Guam Flee Instead Of Fighting

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10—(P)—All organized resistance has been eliminated on Guam and American forces now are wiping out isolated groups of enemy troops.

By Charles P. Arnot

Representing the Combined Allied Press

ABOARD ADMIRAL CONOLLY'S FLAGSHIP, Guam, Aug. 10—(P)—(Via Navy Radio)—This was black Thursday for Japan in the Western Pacific as organized enemy resistance on Guam flickered faintly in the final stages of one of the Pacific war's strangest campaigns.

For the first time in this island-hopping war, Japanese in large numbers have run for their lives instead of fighting to the death.

It can now be only a matter of hours before powerful U. S. ground forces overpower the last pocket of Japanese and Guam is proclaimed an American possession.

For more than 24 hours army and marine patrols have been probing the jungle along the north coast without encountering serious opposition, even on high ground where trenches and foxholes indicated the Japanese probably hoped to make a stand.

No Final Stand
But there has as yet been neither the usual desperate final stand nor one of those frenzied banzai charges.

This battle has spurred for days and now is about to die, with panic-stricken Japanese remnants fleeing in disorder through the rolling bush country. The Japanese have lost at least ten men for every American killed, but hundreds of disorganized enemy troops may be hiding in caves and thickets.

The U. S. troops were puzzled by the lack of a banzai charge. "The Japs are running whenever they see a marine," said Maj. Hamilton M. Hoyer of Avenie, N. J.

Brig. Gen. Lemuel C. Shepherd of La Jolla, Calif., commander of the First Provisional Marine Brigade, described enemy remnants as "scared to death and completely demoralized."

There has been no attempt by the Japanese to reinforce the doomed garrison, and not one single enemy plane ventured over the invaded island.

Tolerance is Needed Today

States Rev. Jensen In Talk to Kiwanians At Luncheon Meeting

"Keeping Level Heads," was the subject of a talk by the Rev. Samuel W. Jensen, pastor of Holy Trinity Lutheran church, before the Sedalia Kiwanis club meeting in Bothwell hotel Thursday noon.

The speaker was presented by Will Ilgenritz, program chairman. He made a plea for tolerant behavior and level headedness when victory day comes and thereafter in the readjustment period following the war. He illustrated by the showing of slides of some of the tragic results of panics caused by mob hysteria that might have been prevented by the application of individual self control.

Also on the program was H. J. Holzworth, international field secretary of the Gideons, here on behalf of arranging for the Gideon convention in Sedalia November 2. He sang a solo with Mrs. Nellie Monegan as piano accompanist.

Cpl. Billings, 23, Killed in Action July 27

Writes Mother Few Days Before That He Is Safe and Well

Corporal James Ralph Billings, 23 years old, was killed in action on July 27 according to a message received Wednesday by his mother, Mrs. Clara Billings, 511 1/2 street, from the war department.

Cpl. Billings was born June 24, 1921 and entered service on November 11, '42 in the infantry. He was married to Miss Lois Bartlett, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Bartlett, on September 21, 1943, in St. Joseph. She is making her home with her parents in that city. The Bartlett family formerly resided in Sedalia at 401 East Seventh street.

Surviving besides his wife and mother are his father, Oscar Billings of Sedalia, two brothers, William and Oscar Junior Billings, a sister, Dorothy Billings, all of the home.

Last Letter Received
Cpl. Billings went overseas in January of this year and on July 24 wrote the following letter to his mother:

"Somewhere in France
"July 24, 1944
"Dearest Mother: Just a few lines to let you know that I'm still OK. I've received several letters from you, so I will try to do a little better from now on. I won't promise though, because you never know what's going to happen over here. I was in the process of writing the other day when a few shells came our way and I hit a fox hole pretty quick."

"How's everyone at home? I had a letter from Uncle Hermann a couple of days ago. In fact three of them. "Mother, dear, I'm feeling fine and like it as well as a person can like this war. We are whipping these Jerries as fast as we can, so we can all come home. Don't worry about me and write as often as you can. Tell everyone hello."

"Love and kisses,
"Ralph."

American Troops Are Placing Bets on Fall of Germany

WITH U. S. TROOPS IN FRANCE, Aug. 10—(P)—So intense is the conviction among American troops that Germany is in a state of near collapse that many are placing bets on her fall anywhere between Oct. 1 and New Years.

Correspondents with the U. S. Army formed a pool bet on when Paris will be captured, with predictions ranging from Aug. 15 to Oct. 1. The favorite date in the pool is Sept. 1.

Tipton Youth Back in States

Technical Sergeant Arthur G. Knipp, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Knipp, route 2, Tipton, Mo., an Air Corps engineer, returned to Reception Station No. 9 at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., after 8 months overseas during which he flew 50 missions, and 226 combat hours, in the Mediterranean theater of operations.

Knipp was lucky to get back from one raid over Styria, Austria. On that raid one engine was shot out by enemy fighter and rocket planes. Gas tanks were punctured by flak and part of the tail assembly was shot to "slivers."

Other targets which stand out in his mind as being especially "tough" are the Ploesti oil fields in Romania where Knipp was credited with shooting down one ME-109, and Vienna, Austria.

Targets in Germany, Austria, Romania, Hungary, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Italy and France have felt the weight and power of bombs dropped from Knipp's plane.

Sergeant Knipp holds a Unit Presidential Citation awarded the 99th Bomb Group, the Air Medal with 8 clusters, the theater ribbon with 3 battle stars, as well as the Good Conduct Medal.

Knipp was an aircraft worker before entering the service at Jefferson Barracks.

First Army Drives Deep Into Germans' Last Defense Zone West of Capital City

By Dwight Pitkin

Associated Press War Editor

American armored forces striking toward the Seine valley drove unchecked today into the Germans' last possible defense zone west of Paris as Berlin acknowledged that the battle for Paris was on.

Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley's mechanized forces apparently had pushed on well beyond the captured stronghold of Le Mans in Old Maine province. One military expert commenting on the mystery-cloaked American push toward Paris said, "You can be pretty sure that they are not camping just outside Le Mans."

A large German anti-tank screen slowed down the Canadian First Army's drive on Falaise but the Canadians in a quick change of pace lunged out due east from Caen toward Vimont on the most direct road to Paris at the northern end of the Allied line.

Gen. Eisenhower's headquarters announced the creation of a powerful new air unit under the command of Lt. Gen. Lewis H. Brereton. This large force with unprecedented coordination and mobility may soon strike some of the most decisive blows of the war.

Meanwhile, fleets of U. S. heavy bombers from England and Italy smashed at fuel and transport facilities around Paris and at the Romanian oil center of Ploesti.

Berlin announced drastic new measures to intensify the war effort on the home front and scrape the bottom of the manpower barrel for the Reich's depleted armies. Propaganda Minister Goebbels banned all public meetings and entertainments not directly connected with the war and ordered further cuts in living standards.

Mrs. Wm. A. Burton Burned With Hot Sealing Wax

Mrs. William A. Burton, 241 South Quincy avenue, was badly scalded Wednesday while canning tomatoes. Mrs. Burton was dipping the tops of the bottles in sealing wax when the cork of one suddenly popped out into the hot wax, throwing it over her body. She was burned on her chest, the upper part of both legs and the thumb of one hand. A little of the hot wax splattered on her face. The most severe burn is on her left leg.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisons out of the blood. They help most people pass about 2 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Salute to a Lady

THE SCENE: A U. S. Army hospital in a little native village in the heart of Algeria about the time of the American landings in North Africa.

VICTORY XXII

THE real thing has started and for weeks and months now I have had no time to write in my diary. Our hospital is anything but a writer's refuge. Often enough I have wished I were a Vishnu with more than one pair of hands. Transport after transport has come in. Wounded men are everywhere. We never have enough empty beds and as soon as a man is well enough to travel he is sent back to the Base Hospital. We all know now what war means.

We make new friends; they leave and become old friends. Some of them forget us but newer ones replace them and life goes on. Corporal Manning is one of the most faithful. He wrote a long, detailed letter on his return to the States.

"I am as happy as I can be— which is a lot!" he wrote. "My wife cried when she saw me and she gently touched my scars. 'Darling,' she said, 'I like your new face much better. It is less conceited than the first one.' It is true, Charlotte, men don't know women. They are a strange tribe."

THE great day has come! Victory! The enemy has been driven out of North Africa. It was worth the tears, pain, suffering and sorrow. We are one big step nearer the end. One big step nearer peace. The happiness among our men is intoxicating.

It is wonderful to see how much the mind controls the body. It wounded all of a sudden feel less pain than the day before. They need less morphine and fewer sleeping capsules. But some temperatures go up!

Whatever before gave us motive for a feast shrinks into insignificance against the overpowering emotions of victory. Victory! Dr. Merrill calls for a solemn celebration in Ward B.

Disregarding the extra work and all the discomfort, we bring the men from Ward C and D into B. The more energetic ones double up in the beds. Others lie on mattresses on the floor. But they all have the urgent wish to be together. They have fought together, been wounded together, and they want to celebrate together.

Yvonne and Elizabeth go to the village grove to cut palm branches. The walls decorated with this symbol of peace are a suitable background for Dr. Merrill's speech.

He stands on a quickly arranged pulpit built of cases which formerly contained Army D Rations. We nurses are grouped around him in a semi-circle. Though the doors to the other wards are open there is not a sound to be heard other than the humming ventilator and Dr. Merrill's voice.

"Men, I am not an orator. I am a doctor. But the most uncommunicative could find words today."

"Victory permits us to think about defeat, about pain, about sacrifice. Victory permits us to think about things which we would like to put into the store-room of our memory."

"We all come from a grandiose world which tried to be sufficient unto itself, without God. We were busy working and making money and had little time to think about that other world—the world within ourselves."

"War woke us up. In my long years as a doctor, I have learned that pain is not a punishment. It is a teacher. It wounded all of a sudden feel less pain than the day before. They need less morphine and fewer sleeping capsules. But some temperatures go up!"

Whatever before gave us motive for a feast shrinks into in-

"Try to make peace within yourselves. Blessed are the peacemakers for they shall be called the Children of God" is written in the Sermon on the Mount. With inner peace you will find the lost path to God—or at least one of the many, many paths that lead toward Him. With peace within yourselves you will be able to stand the coming task. Be it at home or on the battlefield, with peace within yourselves you will be ready for the great and final victory and the new life that is to come."

THE men, deeply moved, did not applaud when Dr. Merrill finished. Some muttered a half-spoken "Thank you, Doctor, thank you."

When Dr. Levin took the podium, we all were still under the spell.

"Let me, too, express my thoughts and feelings," Dr. Levin began in his inconspicuous and shy manner. "Our great country lodges men of many faiths and the descendants of many nationalities, but today, more than ever before, we all are one in our innermost hopes and wishes. We are Americans, whatever we once might have come from—and it is significant that all our forebears, migrating from many different parts of the world in the last 400 years of our history, deliberately chose America as the land in which they most desired to live."

"We are united in our good will, united in our efforts, united in our war against the enemy. And if, therefore, I repeat Dr. Merrill's wishes with my whole heart, I include in this desire for our inward peace the longing for greater outward understanding among those of different creed and different heritage."

Dr. Levin sat down. There was a momentary hush and then the sudden, loud acclaim that issues from a throng in spiritual agreement as though from a single throat. The two medical men had put into words the doubt, fear and hope that was deep in all our hearts—and in doing so had thrown a keen, white light on the long road which is still ahead of us.

Soldier Medal To Sgt. Rogers

Sergeant Harold Rogers former Sedalia, stationed at the Fort Myers, Fla., gunnery school, has received the soldier's medal in a citation from the war department for rescue work there last December when a large gasoline tank exploded five being killed in the blast and subsequent fire. About one hundred were injured some received serious burns and others lesser ones.

Sergeant Rogers and Mrs. Rogers to reconsider his resignation.

Most committee members were silent about the party line-up, simply saying that all members "regretted" and so forth. However, Maine's frank, forthright Owen Brewster, when asked if the committee had tried to get Truman to stay on the job, replied with a grin: "The Republicans sure did, but we didn't have enough support from the Democrats."

Eisenhower Shifts Quarters To Continent Of Europe

By HOWARD COWAN

GEN. EISENHOWER'S ADVANCE COMMAND POST IN NORMANDY, Aug. 10—(P)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, supreme commander of Allied forces, has established his headquarters on the continent in order to maintain the closest possible contact with the Allies fast rolling offensive against the German army.

The supreme command headquarters unit, it was announced Wednesday night, was moved to Normandy, by air during the past few days. Officers and enlisted personnel—including WACS—are living in tents in a camouflaged area under constant patrol by heavily armed military police.

The general is situated near an airfield from which he makes speedy trips daily for personal conferences with Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery and Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley.

Gets Favorable Reports
Tuesday he saw his British and American field commanders, both of whom were able to give highly favorable reports on the progress of the renewed drive from Caen and the tank smash on the western and southern ends of the far-flung Allied front.

Instantaneous telephone communication with supreme headquarters in London is available from the generals trailer-living quarters which is under 24 hour guard by an MP who squats in a dugout behind a machinegun.

The general's guardians are taking no chances on his safety. Eisenhower's aide, Commander Harry C. Butcher, former CBS executive of New York City sleeps in a tent a few yards away.

He was awakened late the other night by thunder from a nearby ack-ack battery. Scrambling out of his bedroll to make for a fox-hole, Butcher tripped over a washstand, grunted and sent pans clattering to the ground.

"Halt!" roared an MP. "I crawled back into my tent and got back into bed," Butcher grinned.

It wasn't a raid. Just a false alarm.

ers and son, Pat, are here during a furlough granted him and are visiting her mother, Mrs. R. L. Thompson, of South Vermont avenue.

In the rescue work he took exceptional chances as to his own safety, receiving burns that necessitated his being hospitalized for five days.

The citation and medal were received on June 2 and later ceremonies will be held at Fort Myers for him and others in heroic work there at the time of the explosion.

Sergeant Rogers leaves for Fort Myers Saturday and Mrs. Rogers and son will leave for their home in Birmingham, Ala., at the same time.

Look what orange juice adds to breakfast!

WITHOUT ORANGE JUICE
a breakfast of whole-grain or "restored" cereal with milk, an egg and buttered toast supplies this much of day's vitamin needs:

WITH ORANGE JUICE
shown by additions in black, the same breakfast supplies this much of day's vitamin needs:

Sunkist

Please note what delicious California orange juice does for vitamin health! A 6 to 8 ounce glass fills your day's quota of vitamin C, as a good breakfast should. It helps you fight fatigue and infection, protects teeth and gums, and helps you keep the vigor of youth.

So for vitamin C—and a healthy bonus of other vitamins and minerals—start your day right with delicious fresh orange juice. Enjoy orange salads or fruit cups, too, and have juicy oranges for the lunch box and between-meal snacks.

Small Sizes Best Buy! Don't miss this big health value! Smaller oranges are most plentiful. Ideal for healthful juice. Buy at least two dozen.

Church News

The Women's Guild of the St. John Evangelical and Reformed church of Florence held its August meeting at the church.

Devotional was led by Mrs. W. E. Roenbach.

The business meeting was opened with a prayer by the president, Mrs. Glenn Mertgen and roll call was answered by eleven members.

The meeting was closed with the Lord's prayer.

The War Mothers will hold a meeting at 8 o'clock Friday night at the East Sedalia Baptist church at which Mrs. O. C. Blankenship, president, will preside. A speaker has been invited to address the group.

Paul J. Donahoe Is Promoted

Mr. and Mrs. Mike J. Donahoe, 818 West Seventh street, have been informed of the promotion of their son, Paul J. Donahoe, of the army air corps, from the rank of second lieutenant to that of first lieutenant.

Lt. Donahoe is at present attending a bomber school at Sebring, Fla., after being for the past year an instructor in an advanced flying at Moody Field, Ga.

Aged 23 years, he enlisted in the air corps on December 8, the day after Pearl Harbor, in 1941. He is a graduate of Sacred Heart and Smith-Cotton schools here. For a year before he entered the service, he was employed here as a mechanic at Westport Motor Co.

At the time of his enlistment he held a private pilot's license and a radio operator's license, which he received after completing a C. A. A. course.

KITCHEN FATS WIN BATTLES, SAVE LIVES

Waste fats and greases from the kitchens of American housewives have contributed immeasurably to the success of American arms and the saving of American lives on all fronts. No more important aid to the war effort can be given than saving these fats, say officials of the Standard Rendering Company, official collectors in this area. These fats and greases supply ingredients for offensive weapons and explosives and for medical supplies as well.

The need now is for continued regular contributions, the collectors say, to meet the greater requirements of offensive warfare. Housewives are urged to save every possible spoonful and turn in accumulations regularly. Points are still given for these fats.

Dealers with stocks on hand can ship direct, express collect, or call for truck pickup service. Address: Standard Rendering Company, 635 Adams, Kansas City, Kansas, or phone HARRISON 1545, Kansas City.

They are delicious and satisfying. I can recommend them. I can drive to Farris' plant where I can make my own selection. They dress every day and store their chickens in chipped ice to insure freshness.

Club Picnic In August

The Arator Good Will 4-H club met Friday night at the home of Patsy and Vincent Younkamp.

The business meeting was presided over by the vice president, Miss Ella Dean Brereton, the president being ill.

Roll call was answered by "What I am going to do to help win the war." A demonstration was given by Linn Wagenknecht on how to feed hogs to get good gain.

Two members plan to go to 4-H camp. They are Linn Wagenknecht and Gene Wells.

A discussion was held on what to take to Achievement day. The club decided to have a picnic sometime in August.

Visitors present were Miss Dorothy Youngkamp of Kansas City; Miss Mary Margaret Judge, Kansas City; Mrs. William Murphy and son, Danny Joe; Mrs. Joe Youngkamp and son, John; Mrs. Melvin May and Mrs. Haush. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

The next meeting will be held with the leader, Mrs. C. E. Wells.

The meeting of the Allen Victory club met at the home of Eldon Eubank August 5. Plans were discussed for the 4-H club round-up exhibits and the collection of milk weed pods. Refreshments were served to members and their parents. The next meeting will be at the home of Doris Eckhoff September 1.

'An Army Travels ...'

Evidently taking seriously Napoleon's adage that an army travels on its stomach, Pfc. Joseph De Freitas of Yonkers, N. Y., cooks himself a snack on a windowsill "kitchen" in Mont Brocard, France, while the town is under heavy bombardment. He wears one of the camouflage suits recently issued to troops in France.

Frosty Halibut Turboto

(Serves 10)
Ten halibut or perch fillets (fresh or frozen), 1 quart vinegar (1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup vinegar, 1 teaspoon pickling spices, prepared mustard, minced parsley or watercress or chives).

Roll fillets and fasten with toothpicks. Measure water, vinegar, salt, spices into saucepan. Bring to boil; turn heat low and

In this, place the rolled fillets. Simmer gently 15 to 25 minutes, until fish is cooked through. Drain. Chill. Spread each rolled fillet with prepared mustard; dust over with minced parsley, watercress or chives. Serve on platter with vegetable and potato salad.

Menu

Breakfast: Blackberries and whole milk, rice griddle cakes, bacon, honey or maple syrup, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Roast duck, apple sauce, brown gravy, roasted potatoes, French-fried eggplant, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, lettuce and tomato salad, sliced peaches, light cream, iced coffee, milk.

Buffet Supper Party: Spiced tomato bouillon, frosty halibut turboto, vegetable potato salad, hot blueberry muffins, butter or fortified margarine, fresh fruit, iced tea, milk.

Corn is steamed in husk with thyme, butter or margarine.

Stuffed Cylindings

(Serves 4)
Two medium-sized cylindings, 2 tablespoons fortified margarine or butter, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 green pepper, finely cut; 2 to 3 tablespoons leftover meat, 1 green or dried onion, cut fine, 1 hard-boiled egg, cut fine, 1/2 teaspoon chili powder, bread crumbs and extra butter or margarine.

Wash squash; cover with boiling salted water and cook 10 to 15 minutes, until tender. Drain, scoop out the centers leaving a rim about 3/4 inch. Mash this scooped-out center; add butter or margarine, salt, pepper, leftover meat, onion egg and chili powder. Mix and refill the shell. Cover top with bread crumbs and dot with extra butter or margarine. Bake in a quick oven (350 degrees F.) 40 to 45 minutes, until squash is well cooked through and browned over the top. Serve at table, cutting each squash in half.

Vary the stuffing with tomatoes, cheese, leftover cooked fowl or several slices broiled bacon.

Zucchini

(Serves 4-5)
One and one-half pounds green zucchini, 1 1/2 pounds dried onions, 2 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, 1/2 teaspoon salt, boiling water.

Slice onions and zucchini into saucepan. Add butter or margarine and salt. Add boiling water, just enough to be absorbed in cooking. Cook quickly until tender. Serve with a dash of paprika.

Green Peppers With Corn Pudding

(Serves 4)
Four green peppers, 2 cups corn, 1/2 cup hot milk, 2 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon sugar, 1/2 teaspoon powdered mace, 2 eggs.

Select medium, regular-sized green peppers; cut off tops and remove seeds. Cover with boiling salted water and parboil 5 minutes. Drain but save the water. Mix corn, with remaining ingredients. Fill the green pepper cups—place in baking dish small enough to hold peppers upright. Fill bottom of dish with water in which peppers were cooked. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 25 minutes until corn custard in the peppers is set, and brown over the top.

Creamed Limas and Corn

Two cups green lima beans, 1/4 cup boiling water, 1/2 teaspoon sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, 1 cup corn, cut from cob, 1/2 cup top milk.

Wash limas; add boiling water, sugar, salt. Simmer together 5 minutes. Add the remaining ingredients and continue cooking until corn is well cooked but not overcooked (about 8 minutes).

MENU

BREAKFAST: Orange juice, ready-to-eat cereal, blueberry muffins, butter or fortified margarine, coffee, milk.

LUNCH: Cold potato and leek soup, tomatoes stuffed with vegetable and fish salad, enriched hard rolls, blackberries, tea, milk.

DINNER: Spanish omelet, sliced cold ham, steamed corn in husks, butter or fortified margarine (add a little thyme powdered to butter or margarine), mixed green salad, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, fresh fruit, sponge cake, coffee, milk.

Altarbound

Mrs. Nicholas Longworth of Washington and Cincinnati, Ohio, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Paulina, to Alexander McCormick Sturm of Westport, Conn. Miss Longworth's father was the late Nicholas Longworth, for six years speaker of the House.

Blueberry Muffins

(Serves 10)
Five cups flour, 7 teaspoons baking powder, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 cup sugar, 2 cups blueberries, 4 eggs, 2 1/4 cups milk, 3/4 cup butter or fortified margarine, melted. Sift dry ingredients; add the blueberries and mix lightly. Beat the eggs to lightness, add the milk. Add milk to flour, mixing just enough to dampen the flour—overbeating makes tunnels in muffins, lumps in batter will disappear during baking. Add the butter or margarine, melted, saving out 2 tablespoons for greasing the muffin tins. Fill greased muffin tins 3/4 full. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 20 to 25 minutes until well baked through. To reheat for serving, place in brown paper bags, twist ends together and reheat in moderate oven.

Both can be prepared in advance, saving last-minute cooking. Reheat muffins just before serving.

Tomatoes and Corn

(Serves 4-5)
Four large ripe tomatoes, 2 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, 1/2 teaspoon garlic salt, 1/2 teaspoon sugar, 1 teaspoon salt and pepper, 1/2 to 1 cup corn, cut from cob.

Wash, scale and skin the tomatoes. Quarter and drop into saucepan. Add remaining ingredients; bring slowly to boil; simmer 8 to 10 minutes, until corn is cooked.

Mrs. Beardsley Loses Round
Mrs. Charles C. Beardsley of Sedalia was defeated 4 and 3 by Mrs. H. M. Sims of Evanston, Ill., in the second round of the Women's Western Amateur Golf tournament Wednesday in Chicago. Mrs. Sims is a former Minnesota state champion from St. Paul.
Defending champion Dorothy Germain of Philadelphia rallied to win six consecutive holes Wednesday for a 5 and 3 victory over Jean Hopkins of Cleveland and gain the quarter-final round, along with such other favorites and medalist Sally Sessions, Phyllis Otto and Betty Jean Rucker.
Mrs. Beardsley, a former Ohio state champion, resides with her husband, Lieut. Beardsley of the Sedalia Army Air Field, at 604 West Sixth street, and represented the Sedalia Country club in the tournament.

Cards Hold Half Interest In a National League Record
The St. Louis Cardinals held a half interest today in the 37-year-old National league record of games won and lost out of the first 100 in a season's play.
By gaining a hard-won 4 to 2 decision last night over the hapless Phils, the Cards tied the record of 73 won and 27 lost which the Chicago Cubs established under the management of Frank Chance in 1907.

Browns Acting Like Penant Winners

While Red Sox Hopes Fade a Bit With the Loss of Tex Hughson

By Jack Hand
Associated Press Sports Writer
Boston's hopes for its first pennant since 1918 faded today as Tex Hughson prepared to report for navy duty and the St. Louis Browns showed no signs of cracking in the stretch.
Hughson, due to report to the navy Aug. 28, was scheduled to start for his Texas home today with the satisfaction of hurling a four-hit job against Chicago for his 18th victory.

Red Sox Fail to Gain
Although Hughson chipped in with two hits and Jim Tabor and Bob Johnson rapped homers, the Red Sox failed to gain on the front running Brownies by their 9-1 slaughter of Chicago. It was their 13th triumph in 15 starts against their White Sox "cousins."
Al Zarilla protected St. Louis' 6 1/2-game margin over Boston by cracking a game winning homer in the ninth inning to stop the New York Yankees, 3-2, as the Browns grabbed their ninth straight win to tie their early season string.

The Yankees, needing a clean sweep of the series to get back in the scrap, faded 8 1/2 games off the pace as the Browns rallied to tie in the eighth on George McQuinn's single and win in the ninth on Zarilla's clout off Hank Borowy. Sig Jakucki, who pitched the last two heats after Luke Sewell lifted Bob Muncie for a pinch hitter, was credited with his tenth victory.

Playing before 18,074, the largest week-day paid attendance of the year at Yankee stadium, the Browns performed like pennant winners and did everything right to grab a very important game.
Detroit Tops Washington
Hal Newhouse matched Hughson with his 18th win as Detroit topped Washington, 4-2, and Early Wynn suffered his 10th successive loss. Newhouse with 18, and his teammate Dizzy Trout with 17, took over the race for high game winner all to themselves with Hughson hanging up his glove for the duration. It was the Tigers' sixth straight victory and the Senators' 19th loss in their last 22.

Al Smith slugged home two runs in the first inning and then settled back to pitch Cleveland to a 4-3 edge over Philadelphia, sprinkling eight hits.
The St. Louis Cardinals, hot after a Labor Day flag clinching in the National, upped their margin to 17 1/2 by trimming the Phils, 4-2, with Reliefer Max Lanier getting the nod over Ken Raffensberger. It was the 73rd win in 100 starts for the Cards, tying a league record.

Brooklyn pulled out of the cellar as Curt Davis scattered 10 Chicago blows for a 5-2 edge over Chicago's Hank Wyse. Fritz Ostermuller picked up win No. 10 for Pittsburgh at New York's expense, 4-3, although he gave 10 safeties and the Boston Braves outslug Cincinnati, 9-6, to give Al Javery the nod over Arnie Carter.

Four day games outdrew four night games for the first time this season, 42,836 to 40,909.

Hemley Gets His Draft Papers

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—(P)—Rollie Hemley, veteran New York Yankee catcher, said today his draft papers had reached New York from his home in Vienna, Mo., and that he had been ordered to report for induction on Aug. 18.
Hemley, in 1-A since spring, originally was to have reported last Monday for induction but his papers failed to arrive in time and it was thought that he might be with the club for much of the remainder of the season.
Hemley is 37 and married.

Charged with the driving of his 1941 Chevrolet truck without proper lights thereon, Wilbur Keeling appeared in the court of Judge A. M. Harlan, justice of the peace, Wednesday, and was fined $5 and costs, a total of $13.70, which he paid in open court following the entry of his plea of guilty.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.
GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 10.—(P)—Still horsing around: ... When Arch Derby, the Kansas oil man, bought Yankee Maid for $1,500 two years ago, he thought so little of the filly that Henry Knight assured him he could have his money back any time he felt dissatisfied. ... With $18,467 for yesterday's Hambletonian victory, earlier triumphs in three other stakes and the prospect of winning several other good purses this year, Derby isn't likely to be around asking for his money back. ... Yesterday's Hambletonian drew the biggest crowd in several years—just over 13,000 by the final count—but the purse was one of the smallest in the 19 years the trotting classic has been raced.

Hambletonian Hayseed

Here's the kind of thing that makes the buggy whip derby something to remember: The weather-beaten faces and keen, unwavering eyes of the horsemen. ... The stores in Goshen with their signs: "Closed Hambletonian afternoon." ... The chatter of Starter Steve Phillips as he gets the horses lined up, and his casual remark between races that he once heard of a heat that took an hour and three-quarters to get off under the old starting system. ... The jams around the inadequately manned mutuel windows. ... The sharp turns on the triangular track that would have running horses cutting a few new gates in the fence. ... The preponderance of soft, drawing voices around the stables and the obvious contentment of the stable hands, sitting in the shade of awnings cleaning harness while the crowd swirls around and the sleek trotters peer out from their stalls. ... The conductor on the train for New York leaning over the back of a seat to ask how the races came out. ... The pungent barn odors and the sweet smell of hay. ... The dumb speeches during the presentation of the Hambletonian trophy—mostly that the winner is a "real nice horse."

Cinnamon Monopoly

In the Netherlands of the 18th century death was the penalty for selling or giving away as little as a single stick of cinnamon, or for willfully injuring a cinnamon plant. The government had complete control of the plant and took every precaution to protect the monopoly and high price.

Scalded To Death
In Derailment

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Aug. 10—(AP)—A Burlington local passenger train was derailed near Shelbyville Wednesday and both the engineer and fireman were scalded to death beneath the locomotive, the state highway patrol reported. Killed were C. G. McKenzie, the engineer, and Earl Lewis, the fireman, both of Brookfield, Mo. "No others were injured," the patrol said. The engine and four cars were derailed about three miles east of Shelbyville, in northeast Missouri.

In one hour a Flying Fortress burns enough gasoline to last the average car owner for six months.

The gasoline consumed in training one American pilot would last the average driver 25 years.

Looking Backward

Forty Years Ago

R. V. (Tine) Denny has just completed on the "Cedar Grove Farm," seven miles southwest of Sedalia, a handsome nine-room residence that in way of finish will compare favorably with any in the country. The building is a two-story frame, with porches, closets and pantries, including all modern improvements. The inside has a dead hard oil finish rubbed down three times, giving it a fine polish.

Dr. and W. S. Manley returned today from Boonville, where he took his son, Earl, aged 8 years, to have a madstone applied to a wound inflicted by the bite of a dog at Pueblo, Colo., ten days ago. The stone did not adhere to the flesh, Dr. Manley states, and because of this fact he inclines to the belief that there is no danger of rabies.

Republican gubernatorial candidate Cyrus P. Walbridge says that the suggestion to open the state campaign in Kansas City appeals favorably to him, and he has referred the matter to Chairman Niedringhaus.

Col. J. G. Callison, of Windsor, owner of "Walnut Boy," is in the city, arranging to show his string of horses at the State Fair next week, and will then take them to the World's Fair at St. Louis.

John Kuntz, manager of the newstand at the Missouri Pacific depot, and wife are visiting the World's Fair.

In The Service

Mrs. Wallace B. Roach, Jr., 411 West Fifth street, received a cablegram on July 17 from her husband, S. Sgt. Wallace B. Roach, Jr., who is a paratrooper and was in the invasion of France. Wednesday she received a letter from him in which he told her that he had landed back in England on June the 17 and sent her the cablegram at noon that day, and he was very much surprised when her letter came telling him that it had been delivered to her at 6:10 that evening, only a few hours after he had sent it.

Mrs. Roach is now getting letters regularly from her husband since his return to England. In his last letter Sgt. Roach sent a small American flag which was tattered and dirty. He explained that each paratrooper was given an American flag to wear in the invasion and this was what remained of his.

Sgt. Roach is the son of Mr. and W. B. Roach, 411 West Fourth street.

Word has been received by Mrs. Victor C. Nichols of Kansas City, formerly of Sedalia, that her son, Homer A. Goff, who enlisted in the Marines in August 1943, and has been in the Southwest Pacific since January 1, this year, was wounded on the Island of Guam on July 28 by mortar shell in the left leg and right arm. He had also taken part in the battle of Saipan. This is the first word Mrs. Nicholas has received from her son since May, when he was on Guadalcanal.

President And War Strategists Meet At Base In Hawaii

Confers With MacArthur And Others On Smash At Japanese

By HOWARD FLUEGER
HONOLULU, July 29.—(Delayed)—(P)—President Roosevelt and top-flight American commanders in the Pacific, including Gen. Douglas MacArthur mapped plans for smashing the Japanese into unconditional surrender at an historic three-day strategy conference here under the gently waving palms of Waikiki beach.

It was the President's first wartime conference with the south-west Pacific commander, whom he greeted with a cordial "It's good to see you, Doug," and together they went over every phase of the far-flung offensive in the west.

Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, Pacific fleet commander, and other top-ranking officers took part in the discussions, which ended today and which were interlarded by a series of inspection trips that took Mr. Roosevelt to many parts of this bustling fortress island.

The President arrived three days ago, on July 26, aboard a new super cruiser. He left the marine base at San Diego, Calif., amid the utmost secrecy, shortly after his radio speech of July 20 accepting a fourth term nomination.

At a news conference here today Mr. Roosevelt said he had received a nice telegram from his vice presidential running mate, Senator Harry S. Truman of Missouri, but declared he was too far away from politics to discuss the campaign.

He said he will report to the nation at some future date on his trip to the Pacific, which brought him into Pearl Harbor ten years to the day from the time of his last visit.

Obviously moved by the tremendous amount of defense work that has been done since the Japanese blasted Pearl Harbor into flaming wreckage two and a half years ago, Mr. Roosevelt said it was the "most amazing change" he ever had seen.

Restates War Aims

After talking with Admiral Nimitz and General MacArthur, who wore a leather field jacket when he went aboard the President's ship to greet him, Mr. Roosevelt restated America's war aims: To liberate the Philippines and to force Japan into an unconditional surrender.

We are going back to the Philippines, Mr. Roosevelt said, and MacArthur is going to be a part of the operation. You can't say, he added with a smile, whether the general is going back directly, or by way of North Africa—but he is going back and we are going to give the islands their freedom.

In reply to a question, the President said new offensives will develop soon, but he pointed out that soon is a relative term and that strategy is a constantly shifting thing.

One of his inspection trips took Mr. Roosevelt into the jungle mountain training area where combat units receive their final weeks instruction before going into the real thing. Asked why American fighters are better than the Japanese at their own specialty—jungle and atoll fighting, the President replied:

"Perhaps it sounds a little like boasting but perhaps it is the difference between our type of civilization and our type of fellow and their type of civilization and their type of fellow."

"We'll take them on at any game—war or pleasure—and we'll beat them at it."

Sea-tanned and smiling, the President rode about in an open touring car, escorted by jeeps, and despite the secrecy surrounding his visit the streets were lined by rows of islanders and service men every time his party appeared.

Seven times he stopped to speak briefly to the men who stood at attention on either side of his car. On his first day here he reviewed the battle-tested 7th division of Attu and Kwajalein fame, commanded by Maj. Gen. Archibald V. Arnold.

Fristoe Youth Awarded Medal

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—(P)—The silver star medal has been awarded two Missouri infantrymen, 1st Lt. Jean M. Unterberger, Doniphan, and Cpl. Earl L. King, Fristoe, the war department announced today.

Cpl. L. King, his citation states, saved the life of his platoon leader by advancing through heavy mortar fire to render first aid during a battle in the South Pacific area July 28, 1943.

Lt. Unterberger was wounded in making reconnaissance of enemy positions in Italy Feb. 15-23, 19. He stayed on duty, according to his citation, despite his wounds and gathered valuable information for his battalion commander while under heavy fire.

Cpl. Billings, 23, Killed in Action July 27

Writes Mother Few Days Before That He Is Safe and Well

Corporal James Ralph Billings, 23 years old, was killed in action on July 27 according to a message received Wednesday by his mother, Mrs. Clara Billings, 1202 East 5th street, from the war department.

Cpl. Billings was born June 24, 1921 and entered service on November 11, '42 in the infantry. He was married to Miss Lois Bartlett, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Bartlett, on September 21, 1943, in St. Joseph. She is making her home with her parents in that city. The Bartlett family formerly resided in Sedalia at 401 East Seventh street.

Surviving besides his wife and mother are his father, Oscar Billings of Sedalia, two brothers, William and Oscar Junior Billings, a sister, Dorothy Billings, all of the home.

Last Letter Received

Cpl. Billings went overseas in January of this year and on July 24 wrote the following letter to his mother:

"Somewhere in France
"July 24, 1944
"Dearest Mother: Just a few lines to let you know that I'm still OK. I've received several letters from you, so will try to do a little better from now on. I won't promise though, because you never know what's going to happen over here. I was in the process of writing the other day when a few shells came our way and I hit a fox hole pretty quick."

How's everyone at home? I had a letter from Uncle Hermann a couple of days ago. In fact three of them. "Mother, dear, I'm feeling fine and like it as well as a person can like this war. We are whipping these Japs as fast as we can, so we can all come home. Don't worry about me and write as often as you can. Tell everyone hello."

"Love and kisses,
"Ralph."

FDR Reviews 7th Division

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Oahu, July 26.—(Delayed)—(P)—President Roosevelt, flanked by Gen. Douglas MacArthur and Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, today reviewed the battle-tested 7th division of Attu and Kwajalein fame.

The review was strictly of foot soldiers — no tanks, no airplanes, no flame throwers, no artillery.

From the reviewing platform on the parade grounds where ten years ago to a day he had reviewed U. S. troops, the commander in chief said:

"Officers and men of the Seventh division, I want you to feel—at least in theory—I am bringing to each and every man greetings from his family and his own home at this spot which, thank God, is still a part of the United States."

Within view of the president were some of the buildings hit by the Japanese December 7, 1941.

He added:

"I have heard much of what the Seventh division has done. We are proud of the Seventh in what it has done and what it is doing—and that is another reason why I give you all the good luck in the world."

Members of the Sedalia Civic club, who have promised to donate the use of their trucks for this drive, are reminded of this, and also to have their transportation ready at the above stated hour Sunday.

Make Way For The New Giant Bombers

Cutback On Production Of Aircraft Order

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—(P)—A sweeping aircraft cutback, affecting Liberator bombers, command transports and Thunderbolt fighters, was ordered by the war department tonight to clear the way for the huge new B-29 and B-32 Superbombers and to release workers for more critical jobs.

Twenty thousand workers will be affected immediately and an estimated 100,000 more will be laid off by the end of this year, said the announcement released by the Office of War Information.

The Higgins industries of New Orleans, which lost their Liberty ship contract in 1942 before a ship was built, was cut entirely from production of the C-46 Commando transport before a plane was completed. Higgins' subcontract work on planes will continue, and about half the 6,300 workers may be retained.

Cutbacks after the first of the year will take place in Commando plane production at Buffalo, St. Louis and Louisville, Ky., but until that time, expanding schedules are to be met.

Inability of the Luftwaffe to inflict as heavy losses as had been expected account for the cut in transport planes, officials said, and the growing emphasis on the Pacific war was seen behind the shift from Liberators to the B-29 Superfortress, and its big running mate, the B-32, by Consolidated.

Elimination Be Gradual

Liberator production by North American at Dallas, Texas, will be eliminated gradually.

Production of the Liberator will be reduced at Ford's great Willow run plant and at the Consolidated-Vultee Aircraft Corporation in San Diego.

A reduction of presently unknown depth will be made in the subcontract work for the P-47 Thunderbolt fighters done by Goodyear at Akron, Ohio, OWI said. It will be sufficient to "ease the manpower situation in Akron."

These accompanying shifts of sub-contract work are planned:

1. Work will be transferred from southern California plants to Dallas to relieve the acute labor shortage in southern California and to provide jobs for the released Dallas workers.

2. Parts production from Akron will be shifted in part to Evansville, Ind., where the P-47 is being manufactured by Republic Aviation Corporation.

The latter switch is expected to release 1,400 skilled makers of heavy tires who are now working in Akron aircraft plants. It was expected that their return to tire companies would ease the critical shortage of heavy truck and bus tires.

Jobs Are Awaiting

As against the 20,000 workers to be released in the next 30 days, OWI said there were 34,000 aircraft jobs waiting to be filled by estimate of the War Manpower Commission. Jobs are open in San Diego, Chicago, St. Louis, Tulsa, Okla., Cleveland, New Orleans and Renton, Wash., for aircraft workers, OWI said.

The Higgins Aircraft Inc., cutback means that the New Orleans shipbuilder will not enter upon production of the 50 planes monthly which had been scheduled there. Higgins associates here said the first plane would have been ready by the end of this month. Production of C-46 wing panels will continue.

"Both the Curtis and Higgins plants have experienced difficulties in getting S-46 production into high gear," said Arthur H. Bunker, chief of WPB's production executive committee staff, which reviews all military cutbacks before they are ordered.

Members of the Sedalia Civic club, who have promised to donate the use of their trucks for this drive, are reminded of this, and also to have their transportation ready at the above stated hour Sunday.

Fala, President's Dog, Makes Trip on Cruiser to Hawaii

HONOLULU, July 29.—(P)—(Delayed)—Fala came 2,000 miles aboard the presidential cruiser to Hawaii but he got only a glimpse of famed Waikiki from the deck. Recently tightened quarantine laws confining canines were not relaxed even for Fala, and President Roosevelt asked no special favors for his five-year-old Scotch.

So Fala lolled aboard, well behaved and well loved by officers and crew. A presidential aide kept a close watch over the Scotch's welfare with daily telephone calls to the ship.

Only incident: A sailor plucked one of Fala's hairs for a souvenir.

Tolerance is Needed Today

States Rev. Jensen In Talk to Kiwanians At Luncheon Meeting

"Keeping Level Heads." was the subject of a talk by the Rev. Samuel W. Jensen, pastor of Holy Trinity Lutheran church, before the Sedalia Kiwanis club meeting in Bothwell hotel Thursday noon.

The speaker was presented by Will Ilgenfritz, program chairman. He made a plea for tolerant behavior and level headedness when Victory day comes and thereafter in the readjustment period following the war. He illustrated by the showing of slides of some of the tragic results of panics caused by mob hysteria that might have been prevented by the application of individual self control.

Also on the program was H. J. Holzworth, international field secretary of the Gideons, here on behalf of arranging for the Gideon convention in Sedalia November 2. He sang a solo with Mrs. Nellie Monegan as piano accompanist.

Visitors

Club visitors were: From the Columbia Kiwanis club — Paul Rutledge, George King, Roy Houschelt and Frank Scott; from Booneville Kiwanis club — Henry Neef, Rev. Fr. Wm. F. Ruel, Ollie Maxwell and Dale Skelton. These men participated with Sedalia Kiwanians Thursday afternoon in an inter-club tournament, details of which were outlined in a brief talk by T. H. Yount.

President Harry Brunkhorst announced there would be a meeting of the board of directors at Keuck's Friday noon.

T. H. Yount has as guests his two sons, Tom Yount, navy technician and Lieut. Keith Yount, U. S. army.

Distinguished Flying Cross is Awarded to Sgt James W. Hall

An Eighth Air Force Composite Station, England—Award of the Distinguished Flying Cross to Staff Sergeant James W. Hall of Sedalia has been announced by Brigadier General Edmund W. Hill, commanding general of the Eighth Air Force Composite Command. The award was presented at a recent ceremony.

Sergeant Hall is assigned as a gunner on one of the AAF's big B-24 Liberators and is a veteran of numerous missions over enemy-occupied territory. He holds a responsible position in the mounting all-out offensive against Europe.

The citation accompanying the Distinguished Flying Cross states: "For extraordinary achievement, while serving with distinction as gunner of a B-24 airplane on numerous special operational missions over enemy occupied Europe. Sergeant Hall performed his duties with the utmost skill and his actions while engaged in combat with the enemy have been an example to his fellow crewmen. The courage, determination, and exceptional skill displayed by Sergeant Hall contributed materially to the successful completion of each of these missions and reflect highest credit upon himself and the Armed Forces of the United States."

Sgt. Hall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Hall, rural route 3, Sedalia, and his wife, the former Esther Jolly, lives at 1420 South Sneed, Sedalia. A 1939 graduate of Smith-Cotton high school, he worked for the North American Aviation Corporation before entering the army.

Two American Naval Vessels Are Reported Lost

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—(P)—Loss of two American naval vessels—the mine sweeper Osprey and the submarine chaser PC-1261—in European waters, was announced by the navy today.

No details were given as to how or where the two craft were sunk by enemy action.

Determined Drive Is Being Made For Paris

Approval On Free Service

PSC Accepts City Light And Traction Company Offer

JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 10.—(P)—The public service commission today accepted the offer of the City Light and Traction Company of Sedalia to give $50,000 worth of free service to electricity consumers during September and October and set new rates which will save Sedalia consumers $25,000 a year.

Ordering the company to proceed with the rate reductions and refunds which City Light and Traction Monday offered to make, the PSC said Sedalia city officials had inspected the offer and "expressed approval."

The city waived further hearings.

The offer was made, the PSC noted, after an examination of City Light and Traction's report for last year, which, the commission said, "disclosed earnings for the year of 1943 were in excess of a fair return."

The company will be required to report monthly to the PSC on the amount of service granted free of charge until the total free service amounts to $50,000 for 1944 and to file its new rate schedule which the PSC ordered effective Jan. 1, 1945.

The refunds and rate cuts will apply to all domestic and commercial consumers, including the city of Sedalia which buys current for street lighting and other city functions, but will not apply to wholesale and special contract buyers of electricity.

May Avert A Glut Of Cattle

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 10.—(P)—If the corn crop turns out as well as expected, a glut of cattle on terminal markets probably will be averted this fall, Grover Hill, undersecretary of agriculture told reporters here today.

Hill, in Kansas City on what he described as an unofficial "listening mission," explained that corn producers compete with packing houses for grass-finished cattle when they have a surplus of corn.

He said that the cattle population, estimated at 82,000,000 head, was the largest in history and that heavy rains to slaughter houses could easily overtax capacity of the packing plants.

Hill, who also is chief deputy WFA administrator, declared the price factor was not as important as the size of the corn crop in determining how many cattle this fall. Better grade cattle have strengthened in price recently, he pointed out.

Many Workers Idle

By The Associated Press

Between 58,000 and 74,000 workers were idle Thursday on the nation's troubled labor front, with President Roosevelt reported ready to act to end an 8-state trucking strike involving an army-estimated 25,000 drivers.

Mindanao is within bombing range of newly-acquired American airfields in the Schouten Islands, off Dutch New Guinea, approximately 900 miles southwest. The newest American beachhead at Sansapor, at the top of New Guinea, is slightly over 600 miles southeast of Mindanao.

Freighter Bombed

Gen. Douglas MacArthur mentioned the Philippines in his July 24 communique for the first time since the fall of Corregidor, reporting the sinking of a small vessel off Davao. Yesterday, he reported the bombing of a 2,000-ton freighter off Davao.

Today's disclosure told of the first assault against land objectives in the lost islands since Royce's raid.

Enemy resistance in the Drinimur river battlefield of British New Guinea has ceased, the communique reported. "Remnants of the enemy's demoralized forces which escaped our encircling movements are fleeing south towards the Torricelli mountains or trying to make their way back to Wewak."

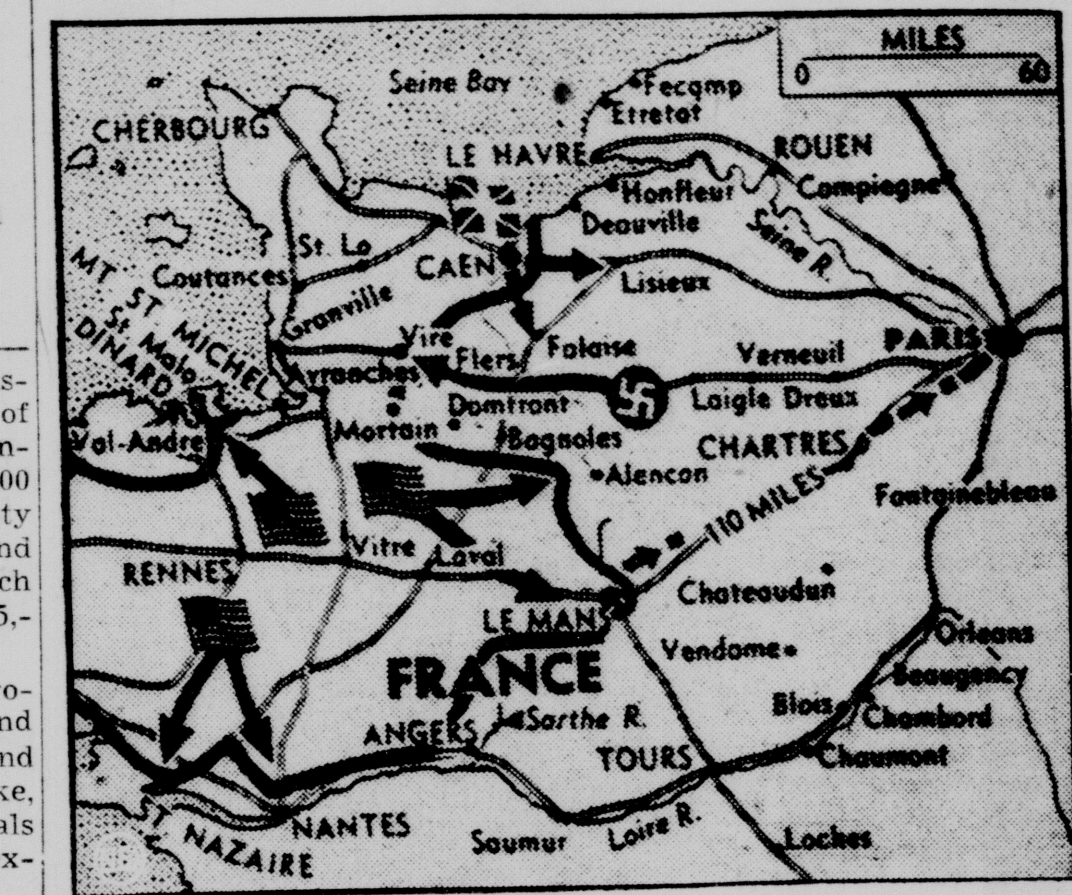

"This crushing defeat has destroyed the combat effectiveness of Gen. (Hatazo) Adachi's 18th army. Its casualties over the past month are conservatively estimated at approximately 18,000 in dead and wounded."

Night Raids By Liberators On Philippines

Airdromes At Davao Smashed By The Raiders

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—(P)—A BBC broadcast tonight said that all the American Liberator bombers participating in the Mindanao raids the past three nights returned safely although they flew to the Philippines without fighter escort.

The broadcast, recorded by the NBC, said returning pilots related they had started fires, several of them very big ones, and had caused explosions on the ground.

By RICHARD C. BERGHOLZ, GENERAL HEADQUARTERS, SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, Friday, Aug. 11.—(P)—American Liberator bombers, raiding the Philippines for the first time in 27 months, smashed Japanese airdromes at Davao with three successive night attacks, headquarters announced today.

The last of the three assaults was during Tuesday night and Wednesday morning. Results were not announced.

Davao, principal city on Mindanao, main southern island in the Archipelago, was occupied by the Japanese in late December, 1941.

The last American raid on the Philippines was an attack on Clark field, some 70 miles northward of Manila, April 15, 1942. The formation, from Australia, was led by Brig. Gen. Ralph Royce from Australia.

Bataan had capitulated six days earlier, but Corregidor was still holding out.

Mindanao is within bombing range of newly-acquired American airfields in the Schouten Islands, off Dutch New Guinea, approximately 900 miles southwest. The newest American beachhead at Sansapor, at the top of New Guinea, is slightly over 600 miles southeast of Mindanao.

Americans In Attack Only 70 Miles From The French Capital

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—(P)—NBC's reporter David Anderson broadcast from France tonight that the Americans were attacking Chateaudun, 70 miles from Paris and only 27 miles south of Chartres.

Anderson's broadcast was carried from the Allied rolling transmitter in France. Chateaudun lies on one of the main roads to Paris by way of Chartres.

Decisive Breakthrough

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, Friday, Aug. 11.—(P)—American armor, exploiting perhaps the most decisive breakthrough of modern war, raced for a showdown east of Le Mans, driving deep into the Chartres zone of the last Paris defenses, and thrusting towards Orleans in the Seine-Loire gap south of the capital.

A third column from Le Mans was believed pushing southward toward Tours to heighten the hopes of freedom for all southern France. They are supporting forces which already stabbed through purely rear guard minefields and thin resistance into Nantes and Angers.

Southward against the yet undefended Loire, eastward toward the open country gap, and north-east down perhaps the last 75 miles to Paris, it was a flying assault of terrific force and vast promise.

Far to the south, U. S. tanks rumbled into Angers, 50 miles up the Loire river from embattled Nantes, impeding at both places only by mine fields, indicating the enemy had no intention of attacking the right flank of the American steamroller from that quarter.

On the northern sector of the blazing, 175-mile front, the Germans fell back slowly before the British and Canadian armies storming the remaining enemy ramparts of Normandy, but lashed back with repeated counterthrusts.

Major Gains Scored

The darkening German picture was unrelieved by supreme headquarters' announcement of the creation of an army of the air—something entirely new in the history of human conflict—a powerful mobile force capable of striking with lightning speed at any point in great force.

The Germans acknowledged major gains by American forces driving north from fallen Le Mans now firmly in doughboy hands, while claiming stiff resistance was being offered at Montfort-Le Trou, 12 miles east of Le Mans and 98 miles from Paris.

The only hint of progress came from an expert observer who said "you may be sure we are not camping outside Le Mans."

One thing was clear. With the fall of Le Mans the enemy had no natural defense line with adequate communications short of one strong north-west from Orleans to the Loire river to Chartres, about 50 miles west of Paris.

Enemy Position Perilous

The enemy's situation was deteriorating in Brittany, where one of the five main ports—St. Malo—had fallen except for one pocket in the citadel, and the others were cut off by land and sea.

The Canadian attack was halted by an anti-tank screen in front of Falais, 20 miles south of Caen, but late in the day infantry and tanks renewed the attack. There was fierce fighting at Potigny, five miles north of Falais. The Canadian bag of prisoners rose to 2,000.

Other forces lashed out eastward and fought in the outskirts of the Paris highway bastion of Vimont, where a British attack was stalled three weeks ago.

Six miles northwest of Falais a fluid battle raged between Canadian and German forces.

Fire Damage At Restaurant

At 6:48 p. m. Thursday, the fire departments were called to 216 South Lamine avenue where grease had been spilled over a stove in a restaurant operated by George Canidy, and had caused flame to spread over the kitchen.

Loss was estimated at $30.

Prowler Is Reported

The police were notified at 9:30 o'clock Thursday night that a prowler had been observed in the 100 block on East Booneville street

'Bev' Sullivan Is Killed in Action July 6

Relatives Have Message From War Department Sunday

Sergeant Charles Beverly Sullivan, aged 38, well known Sedalia, was killed in action in France on July 6, according to a message received by relatives Sunday afternoon from the war department.

Sgt. Sullivan, for several years employed at the Pacific Cafe, entered the service June 19, 1942, and was sent overseas, landing first in England, the latter part of April, 1944.

He was born in Sedalia January 8, 1906, a son of Phil and Mary Bucher Sullivan, both deceased. He was reared in this city and attended Sacred Heart school.

Survivors

He leaves his wife, the former Miss Virginia Skaggs, a daughter, Beverly Ellen, aged 18 months, two brothers, Leo Sullivan, 1904 South Kentucky avenue and Emmet Sullivan, 1105 West Third street and one sister, Mrs. James Tolen of Fort Scott, Kas. Eugene Sullivan of Spring Fork is an uncle.

Pvt. C. L. Shemel Is Wounded

Pvt. Charles L. Shemel has been seriously wounded in action in France according to a message received by his wife, the former Miss Nan Elaine Wilkerson, who is residing with her sister, Mrs. L. C. Kennon, 1455 South Sneed avenue.

Pvt. Shemel was in the invasion of France on June 6 and was in the battle of Cherbourg. He was wounded on July 17 and was taken to England where he is a patient in a hospital. Mrs. Shemel received two letters from him written from the hospital in England before she received the message from the war department and she has had three letters from him since that time.

"I cannot give praise enough to the American Red Cross blood banks," Pvt. Shemel wrote his wife. "After I was wounded I was on the field quite a while before anyone came to me and in that time I lost lots of blood. They gave me blood plasma which saved my life and it was good to know that that blood had come from the folks back in the states." He wrote his wife, also, that he did not believe that he would be permanently disabled or handicapped.

Pvt. Shemel has been overseas since November 1, 1943 and in April he was in the troops to which Churchill and Eisenhower talked and was so close to them that he could have touched them.

Hairdressers' Organization

Mrs. Ethel Sherrod of Kansas City, the state president of the National Hairdressers, was at the Bothwell hotel July 27, in a meeting of the local hairdressers, at which time a unit of the national organization was formed.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. Dorothy Kindred, president; Mrs. Margaret Beckus, vice-president; Alta Billingsley, secretary; Mrs. Mabel Church, treasurer; with three trustees: Mrs. Virginia Rose Moore, chairman, Mrs. Florence Thomas and Miss Lucille Hiltnerberg.

Appointive offices will be announced later.

Mrs. Kindred was appointed a delegate from the unit by Mrs. Sherrod to the state and trade show which will be held in Chicago this month.

Mrs. Moore, who is a state vice-president of the organization, is by virtue of her office, state membership chairman for this district and has also been appointed by Mrs. Sherrod a delegate-at-large to the convention in Chicago.

Hem Towels For Nursery

At a meeting of the Arator Homemakers on August 2 fourteen dish towels for the Melita Day nursery were completed. The meeting, which was the July session, was held at the home of Mrs. Everett Breton with eleven members and 12 visitors present.

The meeting was opened by all singing "America the Beautiful." Mrs. N. A. Cook gave the devotional. Roll call was answered by giving a summer dessert recipe.

A decision was reached to have a basket supper sometime during this month, and following adjournment the afternoon was spent in making the dish towels for the nursery.

The club will meet next at the home of Mrs. Melvin May on August 30.

Traffic Bonds Forfeited

Six persons who violated the overtime parking ordinance failed to appear before Magistrate C. W. Bente, in police court this morning and their bonds of $1 each were ordered forfeited.

They were Elwood Fisher, Delbert Arnold, Louise Alquist, Mr. Jones of 101 West Tenth street, a man from 508 South Summit, and a Mr. Jaeger, Royal Hotel.

In The Service

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Read of Route 6, have received word from their son, Lt. Elmer J. Read telling them that he had landed safely overseas. He said that he had a pleasant trip over and is now stationed in Italy. Conditions are not so bad where he is located, he writes and he could not ask for a much better place overseas.

T/Sgt. Jack Sullivan, 1412 South Ohio street, has returned from Panama where he has served as a photographic laboratory chief for twenty-nine months. He flew 278 hours on photographic missions. Sgt. Sullivan is the son of Mrs. C. C. Sullivan of Sedalia and has been in the army since August 1940. He is now at the

J. A. Bane, 17 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bane, 78 Erie street, Lancaster, New York, formerly of Ottumwa, Mo., has enlisted in the United States Merchant Marines. He entered the service July 26 and is at Sampson, New York, where he is receiving his basic training.

Duane Beckus, who is stationed in France, has been promoted from a sergeant technician to staff sergeant, according to word received by his wife. He is the son of Mrs. Gertrude Beckus. Both his wife and mother reside at 702 South Washington avenue.

Staff Sergeant Carl W. Arnett is now in Italy. He spent twenty-two days there in February and was then sent to North Africa for four months. He is on an administrative platoon at a rest camp and writes that he likes his work very much. His wife and two children are residing with her parents until he returns.

Cadet Kenneth L. Ruffin, son of J. P. Ruffin of Green Ridge, Mo., was graduated recently at the Harana Army Air Field, Tucson, Ariz., after completing his basic flying training course there.

He attended Green Ridge high school and before entering service was engaged in farming.

An Eighth Air Force Liberator Station, England—Sgt. Lloyd J. Schouten of Houstonia, Mo., has been awarded the Air Medal for "meritorious achievement" in aerial combat.

He is a tail gunner on a B-24 Liberator heavy bomber. He has participated in 15 bombing missions over Germany and enemy occupied Europe.

S/Sgt. Schouten is the son of Clarence S. Schouten, Houstonia, Missouri.

Allege Sale Price is High

The first suit to be filed in the Pettis county court under the OPA Emergency Control Act, with reference to overcharges, is that of James Morton and Flossie Morton, 318 West Broadway against Miss Virginia Dempsey. The plaintiffs allege in their petition the defendant overcharged them when they bought a used electric refrigerator.

The petition states the defendant charged $125 for the refrigerator, on which they paid $50, while under the OPA ceiling price the refrigerator is $13.50. In accordance with the Emergency Act the plaintiffs are permitted to ask three times the overcharge.

Fred F. Wesner, attorney for the Morton's stated he felt the overcharge would be three times the price asked or $375, which he asks, plus $36.50 and other costs. The Morton's state they purchased the refrigerator on or about November 13, 1943.

'Bonds For Babies' Campaign Group

The permanent committee of the Pettis County War Bond and Stamp committee met in the Chamber of Commerce offices on Thursday to discuss the "Bonds for Babies" campaign which is being sponsored by Women's groups all over the United States.

With every purchase of a bond of any denomination whatsoever for any child, from infancy to 10 years old, the name of the child will be recorded on a special report blank and sent into national bond headquarters with the child's name.

"The bond department then issues a special certificate, suitable for framing for the nursery, indicating that this child's name and the donor has been inscribed on the roll of honor in the United States Treasury department where the bond will grow with the baby.

Any person may buy any size bond for any baby. When these mature the baby will have a nice nest egg for his health, happiness or education. Each certificate has a border of the Walt Disney characters from "Snow White" arranged by the artist himself; his contribution to the "Bonds for Babies" campaign throughout the nation.

"A committee composed of the following persons, all army wives, has been put in charge of the sales of these bonds: Mrs. Charles Stewart, Mrs. Peter English, Mrs. Lyle Sullivan, Mrs. Joe Long, Mrs. "Bob" Seelan and Mrs. Burney Morris.

Determined Drive Is Being Made For Paris

adian and German tanks, and there was fighting in St. Sylvain, four miles south of Vimont in the same general area.

The British second army was slowly uprooting the last German resistance southwest of this front along the Orne river, closing in on Thury-Haircourt, 14 miles southwest of Caen.

They all but cut off the stronghold by capturing Croisilles, one mile to the northwest, while other forces planted a new bridgehead across the river three miles north of this point, seized Percouville, and cracked into the pocket of Germans between the Orne and Laize rivers.

They were only three miles away on the southwest after a 2½ mile gain which swept them close to St. Martin-De Sallen.

Between these two forces, tanks and Tommies cleaning up the east bank of the Orne below the Grim-bosq woods recaptured Brieuix, La Bagoliere and La Moissoniere, and took Forge-A-Cambro.

Driving to clean up the west bank of the Orne and straighten the lines between Thury-Haircourt and Vire, 21 miles southwest, the British fanned out over the rolling countryside and captured St. Jean Le Blac, Lenault, Lamotterie, Crepigny, Quesnee, Cauville and Ladouite.

The hard pressed enemy was being given no chance to rest or dig in, and it appeared that the German hold on the Orne—the best river barrier in Normandy—was fast slipping.

One and one-half miles east of Vire the British captured Roullours, but the Germans, still attacking in this front in their now-exploded attempt to cut off the Avranches corridor, fought back into Mortain.

North of Mortain, enemy attacks at Gathemo were checked after five of 25 tanks of his striking force were knocked out.

At the tip of the Brittany peninsula, the fight for Brest mounted in fury as the Germans dug in with the elements of at least three divisions.

pened to be at Hickam field when a huge air transport command ambulance plane arrived with wounded from Saipan. Mr. Roosevelt and his party watched the transfer of the 32 bandaged men from the plane to ambulances. Three of the litters were carried close to his car and he reached out to shake hands with the astonished veterans. He also visited the big navy hospital at Aiea and the army's 147th general hospital, where most of the patients are recovering from wounds received at Saipan or in the Marshalls.

The war councils took place in the beach-side garden of the mansion home of the late Christian R. Holmes, a beautiful Waikiki estate taken over by the navy as a rest home for combat pilots. The lavishly equipped house, fenced off from the public, served as the President's headquarters during his stay.

Among the many high officers participating in the talks were Admiral William F. Halsey, commander of the third fleet; Lt. Gen. Millard F. Harmon, who directed army operations throughout the Solomons; Vice Admiral Charles A. Lockwood, commander of submarine operations in the Pacific; Rear Admiral Charles A. Pownall, commander of the Pacific fleet air arm, and others.

On his tour of navy yards, army posts, ammunition dumps, supply bases, and airports, the President saw many planes and tanks that bore the scars and trophies of battle—rows of little Japanese flags denoting victories in combat.

Accompanying the President to Hawaii were his White House military aides, Admiral William D. Leahy and Maj. Gen. Edwin M. Watson; his personal physician, Rear Admiral Ross T. McIntire, surgeon general of the navy; and Samuel I. Rosenman, his special counsel and close advisor.

White House reporters for the Associated Press, the United Press and the International News Service and a representative of the four major radio networks also traveled with the party from Washington.

Rescuer Of Pfc Kale Is Cpl H. W. Struiell

Soldier Burned In Critical Condition Late Thursday

It has been revealed by Public Relations at the SAAF that the heroic act in the rescue of Pfc. Flay B. Kale from beneath a burning gasoline truck Wednesday afternoon on the base was that of Cpl. Hershel W. Struiell.

When the fire-explosion occurred, Cpl. Struiell, who was standing nearby, rushed beneath the truck without thought of his own safety. He placed one arm around Kale's waist and together they crawled from under the large tank. When they were a safe distance from the truck, the rescuer and others extinguished his burning clothing and rushed him to the hospital, where he remained in a very critical condition early Thursday afternoon.

Kale's wife, Mrs. Lottie Kale, of Shelby, N. C., had not yet arrived Thursday afternoon, though she started at once upon notification of her husband's injuries, said Lt. Lucien S. Sanders, acting public relations officer.

Cpl. Struiell, while stationed at the SAAF, resides at 311 Jackson street, in Warrensburg. His home is in Waco, Texas. He has three brothers, two of whom are in the army, one Dewlee, a prisoner of the Japanese for the past two years, another in the army in England, and the third in the navy in New Caledonia.

Another Slightly Burned Pfc. E. A. Maloney, who was in the vicinity helping to remove equipment, received slight burns and was taken to the hospital. His condition is not serious.

Sergeant Henry D. Holman, Sergeant Chazlie Sheller, and Pvt. D. J. Winger, who were nearby quickly took charge and drove other gasoline trucks with trailer-tanks to a safe distance away. They probably were responsible for saving a large amount of government equipment. None of the three was injured by the fire.

Wear Choice For Chairman

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 10.—(P)—Sam Wear, Springfield attorney, was named today by Democratic nominees for state-wide offices as their choice for the new party state chairman.

United States Senator Harry S. Truman, vice-presidential nominee, expressed his approval of Wear's selection in a long-distance telephone conversation from Washington.

The choice of Wear followed two days of discussions during which the seven party candidates made plans for concerted campaigns ahead of the state committee meeting at Jefferson City Sept. 12.

Attorney General Roy McKittick, winner over Senator Bennett Champ Clark in the recent primary, favored Fred W. Emig, his St. Louis campaign manager, for the committee chairmanship but readily agreed to accept an out-state man.

Wear succeeds Walter G. Stillwell of Hannibal, who is on duty with the navy in the Pacific. Mrs. Jessie Coleman, member of the St. Louis county committee, was chosen vice-chairman. The state committee is expected to elect them officially at its Jefferson City meeting.

Although several names were circulated for the chairmanship, including that of state Senator Francis Smith of St. Joseph, known to be favored by state Senator Phil Donnelly, candidate for governor, the party nominees gave signs only of good will and open satisfaction with the choice of Wear.

Guam Conquest At 7,249 Casualties

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor, Aug. 10.—(P)—The reconquest of Guam cost 7,247 American casualties, of whom 1,214 were killed in action, Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced in a communique today.

Nimitz said 10,971 Japanese dead have been counted on Guam. This brings to 37,551 the total Japanese killed in ground fighting during the Marianas campaign.

May Take Over Truck Lines

SEATTLE, Aug. 10.—(P)—U. S. Attorney General Francis Biddle asserted here today that "I believe I can say the government may take over at any moment" in the middle states' truckers strike stalemate.

He declined at his press conference to comment further on the trucking tie-up, explaining that he could not discuss the case until a formal order is issued. He was keeping closely in touch with the case, as well as with the investigation of the recent Philadelphia transit stoppage.

Point Values Back to Pork, Canned Fish

Utility Beef and Lamb Removed from Rationing Sunday

By Marvin L. Arrowsmith

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—(P)—Utility grade lamb will become ration-free Sunday along with beef steaks and roast of the same grade, while point values will be restored not only to pork loins and hams but to canned fish.

The Office of Price Administration, announced this today, also boosted ration values on all cheeses two to four points a pound and increased point values on farm and processed butter in line with the hike to 16 points a pound ordered for creamery butter, effective July 23.

The new red-point charts will be in effect from Sunday through Sept. 2, only half the regular period because of a delay in distributing the August tables.

New values assigned for pork loins range from four points a pound for center cuts, to eight points for center cuts. Whole loins will cost five points a pound.

Hams, smoke as well as fresh, also get a value of five points a pound, with shank ends two points and slices nine points. The value on ready-to-eat ham is two points higher a pound than on the uncooked variety.

Fish Back on Ration

Canned fish goes back under rationing because of "a definite scarcity in nearly all sections of the country," OPA said. The more popular kinds, including salmon, tuna and shrimp, will require six points a pound.

To compensate for more red-point food being restored to the ration list than is being taken off, a new red stamp—D5 in ration book four—will become valid Sunday and be good indefinitely. OPA announced, however, that hereafter red stamps will be validated at the start of each monthly ration period rather than every fourth Sunday. The number of points provided will be 30 or 40, depending on the length of the ration period.

Under this policy, a new set of stamps, probably three, good for a total of 30 points, will be validated Sept. 2, rather than Aug. 27.

Price Administrator Bowles said the removal of utility beef and lamb from rationing should not be taken as an indication of large supplies of meat.

Innocent Pleas In Coupon Cases

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 10.—(P)—Charles Cline and Byron Stafford, both of St. Joseph, Mo., pleaded innocent before U. S. commissioner Charles H. Thompson today to charges of illegal possession, transfer and assignment of gasoline ration stamps. They waived preliminary hearing and were released on bonds of $1,500 each.

Cline and Stafford were two of four men for whom warrants have been issued charging illegal sale or transfer of gasoline coupons worth more than 10,000,000 gallons. Also sought by federal authorities were Jack Arnold Ross and Marion Bolder, both of Kansas City.

Cline said in his signed statement that twice each month men from the Tootle-Lacy National bank in St. Joseph would take the coupons to the laundry where Cline worked to be burned.

Office of Price Administration investigators said these trips were made by armored car. Bank officials who had received the coupons for credit in ration banking stood by until the coupons, pasted to large sheets of paper, were shown into the furnace and the door closed.

Saved Coupons After they had left, Cline said, he would open the door, rake out

Homecoming Sunday At Blackwater Chapel

The 28th annual homecoming and basket dinner was held at the Blackwater chapel north of LaMonte last Sunday.

The day was filled with a varied program enjoyed by a large crowd. One hundred eleven persons were at Sunday school. The following teachers had charge of the classes: Mrs. Earl Clevenger, Miss Lula Wheeler, Mrs. Clyde Staats, the Rev. William Thomas, and Clyde Staats, with C. J. Wheeler as superintendent. The hour closed with an accordion solo, "What A Friend We Have In Jesus," by Warren Lind.

The Rev. William Sampson had charge of the worship program, opened with the song "Abide With Me," by the two choirs—junior and adult. The Rev. William Thomas led in prayer. The program continued with the following songs, "Face to Face," adult choir; "Battle Hymn of the Republic," children's chorus; "Have Thine Own Way," congregation. The Rev. Ralph E. Hurd, of Sedalia, gave the sermon. The closing song was "Home Again" by Mrs. R. H. Robb, of Sedalia, and the Rev. Hurd, with the latter accompanying on the piano.

Judge Dimmitt Hoffman, of Sedalia, gave the benediction.

Lunch was served in the basement of the church.

Service In Afternoon

Homecoming service was held in the afternoon with the Rev. William Sampson, pastor, presiding. A quartet from Sedalia, composed of the Rev. Ralph Hurd, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Withers and Mrs. R. H. Robb, all of Sedalia, with Mrs. Earl Clevenger as accompanist, furnished special music, as did another quartet composed of Mrs. Leonard Reavis, Miss Anderson, the Rev. Wesley Hampton and P. C. Reid, all of LaMonte, with Mrs. R. B. Burk as accompanist.

Judge Dimmitt Hoffman gave his annual address, after which was read a roll call of all the men of the community in the armed forces. The Rev. Hurd gave a tribute to these men.

Men In Service

Men represented in service are: Harold Winston, Norfolk, Va.; Sidney C. Winston, South Pacific; Walden C. Winston, California; Lee Hamilton Hughes, Savannah, Ga.; Perry C. Whittall, Italy; Avery Colwell, South Pacific islands; William Thomas, South Pacific; William Colwell, Alaska; Warren Kraeger, Australia; Howard Bastian, Mississippi; Hadley Petering, England; G. C. Smith, Georgia; Raymond Hall Smith, England; Frank Martin, South Pacific islands, and Thomas Warren, Texas, who was present.

Miss Enid Johnson, of LaMonte, a returned missionary from China, gave a word picture of her work as a prisoner of the Japanese and other experiences in China.

Parsons Hurd presented the church a beautiful picture, "Christ On Mount Olive," from the Young People's class, followed by an accordion solo by Warren Lind, "There Is A Fountain," with Mrs. Clevenger at the piano.

Tribute Paid

Tribute was paid to the memory of the following persons who had died since the last homecoming:

Edwin Walkenhorst, of Kansas City, who had given his time the past four years, with the quartet from Kansas City.

J. Willis Smith, of Sweet Springs, who had lived in the community a number of years.

Louis Ward, of LaMonte, one of the oldest members.

Henry E. Simmons, of Houston, who had been a member for 32 years, recently passed away.

Other talks were given by the Rev. William Thomas, the Rev. Wesley Hampton, LaMonte, John Hammack, Sedalia, Mrs. Etta Fisher, St. Louis, and Henry White of Sweet Springs.

Only three persons were present who have attended every homecoming—O. C. Forsyth, Miss Lula Wheeler and C. J. Wheeler. Present from Sedalia were Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Withers, Mrs. R. H. Robb, the Rev. Hurd, Judge Hoffman, Mrs. Hoffman and daughter, Ruth Maurine, John Hammack, Lawson Cline and Mrs. Corrine Rathburn and children.

Others came from Kansas City, St. Louis, Harrisonville, Warrensburg, Knob Noster, Houstonia, Concordia, Higginsville, LaMonte, Sweet Springs, Dresden, Lee's Summit, Gilbert, W. Va., and Tex. The church has been recently redecorated.

the coupons and save as many as he could. He led the OPA men to a hiding place in his home where he had cached enough of the coupons for 384,925 gallons. He estimated he had pulled out more than 10,000,000 gallons in coupons.

In his statement Cline said he had been selling coupons to Ross and Stafford, some at two cents a gallon, others at one cent a gallon.

Bolder, identified by the OPA as a filing station attendant, was not mentioned in Cline's statement and OPA officials refused to say why a warrant had been issued for his arrest. They added, however, that other arrests would be made.

The investigation started, they declared, after the midwest was flooded with illegal coupons, some of them slightly burned.

The gasoline consumed in training one American pilot would last the average driver 25 years.

Bus riding doubled from four billion passengers in 1940 to eight billion in 1943.

Cinnamon Monopoly

In the Netherlands of the 18th century death was the penalty for selling or giving away as little as a single stick of cinnamon, or for willfully injuring cinnamon plant. The government had complete control of the plant and took every precaution to protect the monopoly and high price.

In one hour a Flying Fortress burns enough gasoline to last the average car owner for six months.

Browns All But Eliminate Yanks

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—(P)—St. Louis all but eliminated the New York Yankees from the American league race today as Denny Galehouse shut out the McCarthy clan with six singles for the Browns tenth straight victory by a 3-0 score.

Galehouse hung up his fifth successive win after losing three starts in early season when he was a Sunday tosser on part time from a defense plant. Only one Yankee, Johnny Lindell in the seventh reached second base as the champs dropped 9½ games behind the flying Browns.

Rescue From Blazing Truck

Pfc. Flay B. Kale In Critical Condition At Base Hospital

The heroic act of Cpl. Hershel W. Struiell, Sedalia Army Air Field soldier, about 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, probably will be responsible for saving the life of Pfc. Flay B. Kale, 29, of Shelby, N. C., who was seriously burned, when a gasoline tank-truck on which he was working exploded. Cpl. Struiell was standing near the truck when he heard the fire. Turning he saw Pfc. Kale on his hands and knees beneath the truck. He then ran over, got under the big trailer-tank, and called to Kale to "Come on, let's get out of here."

Cpl. Struiell, without thought of his own safety remained with Kale. He placed one arm around Kale's waist and together they crawled from under the large tank. A few seconds after he had Kale a safe distance away, a section of the tank which they had been under, exploded, throwing smoke more than 100 feet into the air. The entire area around the trailer-tank was a mass of flames within seconds.

Pfc. Kale had parked the truck, gotten out of the driver's seat and was working on the tank when fire developed. His clothing caught fire and he fell beneath the truck. The rescuer and those who were nearby quickly extinguished the flaming clothing.

A civilian, passing, was hailed by Cpl. Struiell and Pfc. Kale and was put into his car and driven to the hospital. Today his condition, although remaining serious, is somewhat improved, according to Acting Public Relations Officer, Lieut. Lucien S. Sanders.

Among the dairy cattle show herds to be seen at the Empire Ozark Fair at Springfield next week is that of Paul V. Selken, of Smithton, Mr. Selken has entered sixteen head in the Holstein-Friesian division.

Animals from the Selken Farms captured both Grand Championships at the 1943 fair. Entries in the dairy division of the fair which runs from August 13 to 19 are the largest in the history of the exposition which is located in one of the largest dairy sections of the United States.

J. Ross Kindred Uses Ladder To Tie Up Tomato Vines

Believe it or not, J. Ross Kindred, 300 South Grand avenue, had to use a step-ladder Thursday to tie up his tomato vines.

He is growing unusually fine tomatoes, but just how fine and how large the vines were growing neighbors did not realize until they saw him mount the step-ladder this morning to tie them up.
